

UCI Claire Trevor School of the Arts

CREATIVE CONNECTIONS

2023-2024 Teaching Artist Interns

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Creative Connections program provides a year-long teaching artist internship to UCI arts majors, preparing them to develop and implement arts-based curriculum and projects for K-12 students in collaboration with an Orange County area educator.

We are looking to fill 20 TEACHING ARTIST INTERN positions.

POSITION SUMMARY

A Teaching Artist Intern is a dedicated, enthusiastic individual who would like to gain valuable teaching experience and give back to their community. Interns are matched with an Orange County educator to augment the amazing work already being done in their classrooms. Interns will model and coach K-12 students through arts-based lessons and/or projects within their arts discipline. Interns will receive training to prepare and develop appropriate curriculum that values equity, diversity, inclusion, and youth safety.
