

PH.D DRAMA AND THEATRE
2021-2022 Degree Requirements

The following 10 required seminars must be completed by the end of the third year, and a minimum of one seminar per academic year must be taken in the UCSD Dept. of Theatre & Dance:

Drama 290: Dramatic Literature and Theatre History Prior to 1900 (3 courses) _____ 12 units

Drama 291: Dramatic Literature and Theatre History, 1900 to Present (3 courses) _____ 12 units

Drama 292: Cultural and Critical Theory (4 courses) _____ 16 units

Additional required courses:

Drama 293: Directed Studies _____ units vary

Drama 294: Dissertation Research _____ units vary

Drama 399: University Teaching (4 courses) _____ 8 units

Optional Emphasis in Dramaturgy:

Drama 244: Dramaturgy: Theory and Methods (1 course) _____ 4 units

Drama 297: Dramaturgy Practicum (1 course) _____ 4 units

Drama 290 or 291 (1 course) _____ 4 units

Electives:

Foreign Language Requirement (must be completed by end of 3rd year) _____

Advancement to Candidacy: Three Qualifying Papers

The three qualifying papers must be completed by the end of the 3rd year. The normative time for students to pass the Qualifying Examination and Advance to Candidacy is at the end of their third year; students MUST advance to candidacy no later than the end of fall quarter of their fourth year.

Comprehensive Examinations:

1st Year Written Comp Exam: _____

2nd Year Oral Comp Exam: _____

3rd Year Qualifying Exam: _____

Dissertation Defense: _____

A total of 144 quarter units in graduate (200+) or approved upper-division undergraduate (100-199) courses must be completed with a grade of at least "B" in each course. Forty of these units are taken in required seminars; the balance is made up of elective seminars, independent study and research projects (including preparing the three qualifying papers), and dissertation research. Normative time for completion of the degree is five years; total registered time in the Ph.D. program at UCI or UCSD cannot exceed seven years.