

Hello Drama Seniors!

I'm writing to remind you that the Honors in Drama Designation is officially open for applications. The Honors in Drama is a designation designed to recognize the generalist undergraduate Drama student, one who has chosen to focus on breadth in their education as opposed to depth in one area. Such students are often ineligible to be considered for Honors in a specific area (Acting, Design, etc.), and the Honors in Drama designation is a recognition of the high quality of scholarship and work that the student has accomplished within the Department.

I'm attaching a pdf outlining the program, including criteria, eligibility, and a FAQ. You can apply for for the Honors designation at this link.

Please reach out to me if you have any questions!

Cheers,

Vinnie
