Dear UCI Dancers,

Get ready – it's week 8 and we're having a 3-2-1 week countdown, celebrating your successful completion of the academic year. We're in the last few stretches of spring quarter, and you are so close to a very well-deserved summer break. Three more weeks to go!

Below is your Dance-related news, including updated information on the BFA Choreography major, and an invitation to watch a virtual performance with the Lar Lubovitch Dance company, beginning this Friday, 5/21/21.

WEEK 8 NEWS

Dance BFA Choreography Major

Those dancers interested in applying for the BFA – Choreography major are now to apply in the spring quarter prior to the year that they intend to graduate. See the flyer attached.

Watch Three Award-Winning Dances with the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company

Watch a unique compilation of highlights from the broadcast premieres of three acclaimed works by Lar Lubovitch including the duet from Concerto Six Twenty-Two, performed by the Lubovitch company; Othello, performed by San Francisco Ballet; and The Planets, created for a mixed ensemble of ice skaters – and non-skating dancers – from the US and Canada.

The free, on-demand program will be available for 10 days only. It will premiere on May 21 at 7:30pm EDT and can be subsequently viewed through May 31 at 7:30pm EDT. Reservations are required.
