Guest Artist Speaker Series: Global Perspectives and Artistic Practice - Adah Parris

CTSA International Initiatives | In conversation with UCI Professor Lisa Naugle and Assistant Professor of Dance Ariyan Johnson

Adah Parris is a futurist, cultural strategist, systems designer, and artist who uses a humanity-centered design approach to creative problem-solving in order to spark transformational change in cultures, communities, and organizations. A polymath and enthusiastic curator of people, patterns, and stories, Adah was recognized as one of the United Kingdom's Top 100 Black and Minority Ethnic (BAME) Leaders in Technology in 2018. In 2019, she was nominated by Google as one of the TED Talks Global Emerging Innovators. In 2020, she was longlisted as one of the Most Influential Women in UK Technology. She is currently an Artist in Residence at The Design Science Studio (Buckminster Fuller Institute).
