

Dear continuing Art Majors,

As of Fall 2021, there is a slight change to the upper-division requirements.

The department has removed the two tier distinction of upper-division courses (see image below). Students may now choose any 6 upper-division courses between Art 100-115 and 130-195 (see Section D of the major requirements). This change allows for more flexibility in completing the upper-division requirements.

Please note – these courses do not include Issues courses, which are a separate requirement (see Section E).
