Hello-

I'd like to invite you to a UCI Illuminations event next Wednesday, November 18th at 12pm. I'll be speaking with Tristan Sharps from dreamthinkspeak out of the UK. They are an amazing site-responsive theater company and I'd love to have you join the conversation.

More information is below:

Founded in 1999, dreamthinkspeak is a pioneer in site-responsive performance. This Brighton (UK) based company fuse live performance, film, and installations to create unforgettable journeys for their audience members. Their previous works have taken place in a former department store, an underground abattoir, a paper factory, and a Treasury building.

To learn more about the company, visit <https://dreamthinkspeak.com/about>

WINTER QUARTER: UPDATE on Directing One, Drama 80, and Drama 185/211.
Works in Progress!

Reply –to: Jane Page (janepage@uci.edu)

This Winter there will be a (Drama 80) Directing One class on Monday and Wednesday from 1-2:50 – Prerequisites are flexible.

Also this Winter there will be an Advanced Directing class 185/211, “Works in Progress!” on Friday Mornings from 9:30-12:15 (ISH).

 The prerequisite of 184 is waived this quarter due to our unusual class schedules in response to COVID.

This class will investigate a variety of ways and means to create theatre from non-traditional sources.

Both of these classes are on-line.

If you have questions or would like to join either class contact JanePage@UCI.edu for an authorization code.

Thank you,
