Dear UCI Music students,

We hope your Week 4 is off to a good start!

Below we are sharing the Vice Provost's call for nominations for the 28th Annual Celebration of Teaching Awards, recognizing individuals for excellence in undergraduate teaching. We understand this has been a year like no other, and that there may have been Music faculty and/or graduate students who have went above and beyond in their classes. Students are welcome to nominate directly via the link (<https://dtei.uci.edu/2021-celebration-of-teaching-awards-nomination/>) or to forward supporting rationale for any Music faculty nominations to the Music MSO, Peter Chang, at pechang@uci.edu, to submit on your behalf.

The full descriptions of the awards are below. Please note that nominations are due by midnight, Friday, January 29th, 2021.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask!

Thank you,

Office of the Vice Provost for Teaching and Learning

Dear Colleagues,

The campus community is invited to nominate individuals to be recognized for excellence in undergraduate teaching. The descriptions and eligibility of the awards are below as well as a link to submit your nomination.

Nominators are asked to submit the name of the person being nominated as well as a brief reason for the nomination. Faculty, staff, and students are all welcome to submit nominations. Self-nominations are also welcomed. Once nominations are closed, all nominees will be invited to apply for the award. Nominations for Dean's Honorees will be solicited directly from each School.

Nominations are due by midnight, Friday, January 29th, 2021.

All award winners will be honored at the 28th Annual Celebration of Teaching in a virtual ceremony in April.
