

Hello everyone!

The production office is currently looking for folks to fill some 101 CREW spots for UCI's production of THE PROM. All positions are available for 4 units of Drama 101 credit and will provide you with useful, field-applicable knowledge that you can take with you in any future theatrical work.

We are looking to fill 4 E-HANG, 4 E-RUN, and 3 SCENIC CREW positions. The calendars for expected times and dates are linked here:

If you are interested in filling any of these spots or have any questions about the positions, please email production@uci.edu or come into the Production Office at any time where we are holding office hours (calendar available here).

Please remember if you have not completed your Drama 101 requirements within your first year in the major, you will not be allowed to audition for any productions until you complete your course requirements (as denoted in the UCI catalogue).

Thank you, and have a wonderful day!

Best,

The UCI Production Office TAs
