Graduation Checklist

Walking vs. Degree Completion

- Walking refers to participating in Commencement
 - i.e., You may be completing your degree in summer session, but walk in the spring ceremonies
- Degree Completion means you have met ALL requirements to complete your degree(s)
- Note – you will not receive your actual diploma during Commencement

Eligibility

- Students who will earn a degree during the 22-23 academic year – Fall '22, Winter '23, Spring '23 (or who expect to complete their degree requirements during Summer '23) – are eligible and welcome to participate in Commencement ceremonies.

Steps to Confirm Eligibility

1. Review your degree audit on DegreeWorks via StudentAccess to see any degree requirements you may have left to complete.
2. Your DegreeWorks audit must show as complete in each section: University, General Education, and Major Requirements.
3. Your overall UCI GPA, major GPA, and upper-division GPA must ALL be a 2.0 or higher.

Confirm Graduation Eligibility with an Academic Advisor

- Total of 180 units
- All major requirements must be taken for a letter grade (no P/NP)

Commencement

- Check the Commencement website for all details regarding commencement at <http://www.commencement.uci.edu/>.

Commencement Program

- Review your Application for Graduation in StudentAccess to confirm that your name and major are both correct.
 - If your name is incorrect, you must Request a Change of Name on UCI Records.
 - If your major is incorrect, you must request a change through your academic advisor.
- If you have a written request with the Registrar's Office to restrict your public information (FERPA block), your name and major will not be included in the Commencement Program.

Commencement Registration

*Subject to Change

- REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED to participate in the *University-wide ceremony and school receptions.
- It is very important that graduates register before registration closes. Late registrations will not be accepted.
- Each school has a specific date and time assigned for them to BEGIN registration.

Academic Regalia; Caps, Gowns, and Tassels

- Purchase your cap and gown and other items through the UCI Alumni Association.
- Sashes and stoles: UCI graduation sashes and stoles representing UCI organizations or proclaiming a vocational aspiration may be worn with a cap and gown.
 - Wearing multiple stoles is permitted.
 - These items can be purchased through the Hill.

Latin Honors

- General criteria;
 - completed at least 72 units in residence at a University of California campus and
 - cumulative GPA of 3.5 or better, including the grades from the final quarter.

Senior Photos

- Check your emails for more information about your senior photos, this is not through our department.

Receiving Your Diploma

- Students are issued one diploma for each degree awarded.
 - Majors completed at the same time in the same school are included on a single diploma.
 - Majors completed in different schools are issued separate diplomas.
- Minors and specializations are NOT included on the diploma but are posted on academic transcripts.

Honors Designations on Diploma

- Latin Honors and Campuswide Honors are posted on both the diploma and academic transcripts.
- University Honors designates students who have successfully completed BOTH the Campuswide Honors Collegium requirements and a school or major honors program. University Honors are not included on diplomas but are posted to academic transcripts.
