Fall Courses

193-The Thinking Body - From the mind to the body and back again. Professors Diefenderfer and Lubovitch have joined together to create a practice uniting Pilates based concepts and Floor Barre technique designed to develop a deeper awareness of the power of the brain/body connection in order to expand the dance practitioners' freedom of movement , safety from injury, and presence of mind.

193-Senior Seminar - This course is designed to guide UC Irvine Dance majors as they reflect upon their university experiences and prepare for careers in dance. The course will explore the variety of potential careers in dance, guide the students as they gain a better understanding of their personal career goals and become prepared to achieve those goals, and form a plan of implementation based on the tools and information in the course. We hope to answer the question – “what am I going to do when I graduate?”

NOTE – Seniors, “Critical Issues” is being offered in fall quarter next academic year. You can also take it during this summer '23.
