

Dear UCI Musicians,

It is officially week 2 of winter quarter! We hope you are staying healthy and safe. We understand that the University's extension of remote instruction may come as disappointing news, but the faculty and staff are here to support you in every way we can – we are all in this together, and we will get through this together. In difficult times, let us remember that we can draw on the support of our classmates and community to continue to build resilience and strength. You are not alone. And even though we have screens between us, we are still connected, and we are still here for you in classes, meetings, and any other events we hold. Regarding your current schedule, this is a friendly reminder that the add/drop/change deadline for courses is this Friday, 1/14/22. Please see your Music-related news below, with reminders about submitting music to your pianists if you are a performance student, lab fees, and contact information for your Music Peer Advisor to assist with course planning.
